The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 29, to Saturday February 2, 1760.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of February, 1760,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in His Privy Council.

WHEREAS John Room, alias Rome, commonly called the Elder, of Tordiff, in North Britain, Farmer, and James Room, alias Rome, of the said Place, Farmer, Brother of George Room, alias Rome, of the said Place, and often called Little Jemmy, or Fighting Jemmy; were, upon the Nineteenth Day of January last, charged by Information of two credible Persons upon Oath, by them subscribed, before Mountague Farrer, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Cumberland, with having been guilty, upon the Sixth Day of December last, of being, together with divers other Persons, to the Number of Eleven and upwards, armed with Fire Arms and other offensive Weapons, and so armed being assembled on Horseback at a Place called Brough Marsh in the County of Cumberland, in order to be aiding and assisting in conveying and carrying away uncustomed Goods, and forcibly hindering, obstructing, opposing and resisting the Officers of the Customs in the due Execution of their Duty, and firing their Pistols at them — Which Information was afterwards certified by the said Mountague Farrer, under his Hand and Seal, to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, who hath laid the same before His Majesty in His Privy Council, pursuant to the late Act of Parliament of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty in that Case made and provided.— His Majesty doth, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by this His Order in His Privy Council, require and command, that the said John Room, alias Rome, commonly called the Elder, and James Room, alias Rome, Brother of George Room, alias Rome, and often called Little Jemmy, or Fighting Jemmy, and each of them, do surrender himself and themselves, within the Space of Forty Days after the first Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, to the Lord Chief Justice, or one other of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's Bench, or to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

William Sharpe.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 1st Day of February, 1760,

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 15th of May last, "For "giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied "Landmen to enter themselves on board His Ma"jesty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for "discovering such Seamen as shall conceal them"selves; for pardoning such Seamen as have desert"ed and shall return into the Service; and also for "taking up all straggling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 11th of this Instant February; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer—His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order, that the said Time be prolonged and extended from the aforesaid 11th Day of this Instant February, to the 24th Day of March next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the said 24th Day of March next. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Freyberg in Saxony, Jan. 16. His Pruſſian Majeſty, finding it impoſſible to attack the Poſt of Dippoldeſwalda, and the Froſt increaſing to an extreme Degree, thought proper, on the 12th Inſtant, to withdraw his Troops from Pretſzſchendorff and Frauenſtein; and, ſince that Time, has fixed his Head-Quarters here. The Enemy did not even attempt to harraſs the Rear Guard of theſe Corps in their March hither. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick came to this Place, along with the King of Pruſſia, on Saturday Morning; and, the ſame Day, Part of the Troops under his Command, marched to Odern, where they were to halt the next Day, and the Day after to go on to Chemnitz. The Auſtrian General Harſch, it is ſaid, is marching through Bohemia by Luſatia into Saxony; and General Fouquet, with the Pruſſian Troops in Sileſia, has Orders to attend his Motions. The Auſtrian General Beck ſtill continues in the Neighbourhood of Groſſen Hayn; and his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry of Pruſſia, keeps the ſame Poſition he has ſo long been in. Marſhal Daun has yet made no Movement ſince the King of Pruſſia withdrew his Troops from Pretzſchendorff and Frauenſtein, except that the Auſtrians took Poſſeſſion of that latter Poſt on the 12th.

Hague, Jan. 25. By the laſt Advices from Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters at Marbourg of the 18th Inſtant, we are informed, That on that Morning the Army began their March to their reſpective Winter Quarters: His Serene Highneſs's Head Quarters, it is ſuppoſed, will be fixed at Paderborn. The Britiſh Troops are to have theirs at Oſnabrug, and in the Neighbourhood thereof, where they will arrive on the 28th Inſtant.
